

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION OF OREGON

UM 1987

In the Matter of

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY,

Request to Update its Schedule 201 and Standard Power Purchase Agreements.

PREHEARING CONFERENCE
MEMORANDUM AND RULING

DISPOSITION: INITIAL PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE ESTABLISHED

A telephone prehearing conference in this docket was held on November 13, 2019. Appearances by Portland General Electric Company (PGE), Oregon Citizens' Utility Board (CUB)¹, Northwest and Intermountain Power Producers Coalition (NIPPC), Renewable Energy Coalition (the Coalition), Community Renewable Energy Association (CREA), Evergreen BioPower, LLC, and the Staff of the Public Utility Commission of Oregon (Staff) were noted for the record. NewSun Energy appeared as an interested person.

At the conference, it was noted that NIPPC, the Coalition, and CREA had filed a joint motion on November 12, 2019, to stay these proceedings until after the completion of docket AR 631. PGE indicated its intention to oppose the motion and to seek to continue these proceedings. The parties were thus unable to agree upon a schedule that did not include multiple contingent outcomes.

By statute, a person may petition to intervene at any time before the close of the record.¹ But because it is helpful if parties are identified early in the proceedings, the Commission requests that petitions to intervene be filed as soon as possible.

Parties are reminded that attorneys not licensed in Oregon wanting to appear before the Commission in this docket must file an application for admission to appear pro hac vice.²

RULING

1. PGE, Staff, and other parties may respond to the NIPPC-Coalition-CREA joint motion to stay on or before November 26, 2019.
2. The moving parties may reply to the responses on or before December 6, 2019.

¹ CUB filed its notice of intervention on December 19, 2018, as allowed under ORS 774.180.

² See UTCR 3.170, OAR 860-001-0320.

3. In order to assist the parties and Staff in addressing the joint motion to stay, no later than November 19, 2019, PGE shall file and provide all parties with “redlined”³ versions of the Revised Schedule 201 and Revised Standard Power Purchase Agreements identified as 2.a. through h. in its cover letter dated October 1, 2019.

Dated this 14th day of October, 2019, at Salem, Oregon.

Allan J. Arlow
Administrative Law Judge

Attachment: Notice of Contested Case Rights and Procedures

³ Schedule 201 and PPAs currently in effect with all changes in the October 1, 2019 versions tracked thereon.

NOTICE OF CONTESTED CASE RIGHTS AND PROCEDURES

Oregon law requires state agencies to provide parties written notice of contested case rights and procedures. Under ORS 183.413, you are entitled to be informed of the following:

Hearing: The time and place of any hearing held in these proceedings will be noticed separately. The Commission will hold the hearing under its general authority set forth in ORS 756.040 and use procedures set forth in ORS 756.518 through 756.610 and OAR Chapter 860, Division 001. Copies of these statutes and rules may be accessed via the Commission's website at www.puc.state.or.us. The Commission will hear issues as identified by the parties.

Right to Attorney: As a party to these proceedings, you may be represented by counsel. Should you desire counsel but cannot afford one, legal aid may be able to assist you; parties are ordinarily represented by counsel. The Commission Staff, if participating as a party in the case, will be represented by the Department of Justice. Generally, once a hearing has begun, you will not be allowed to postpone the hearing to obtain counsel.

Notice to Active Duty Servicemembers: Active Duty Servicemembers have a right to stay these proceedings under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. For more information contact the Oregon State Bar at 800-452-8260, the Oregon Military Department at 503-584-3571 or the nearest United States Armed Forces Legal Assistance Office through <http://legalassistance.law.af.mil>. The Oregon Military Department does not have a toll free telephone number.

Administrative Law Judge: The Commission has delegated the authority to preside over hearings to Administrative Law Judges (ALJs). The scope of an ALJ's authority is defined in OAR 860-001-0090. The ALJs make evidentiary and other procedural rulings, analyze the contested issues, and present legal and policy recommendations to the Commission.

Hearing Rights: You have the right to respond to all issues identified and present evidence and witnesses on those issues. See OAR 860-001-0450 through OAR 860-001-0490. You may obtain discovery from other parties through depositions, subpoenas, and data requests. See ORS 756.538 and 756.543; OAR 860-001-0500 through 860-001-0540.

Evidence: Evidence is generally admissible if it is of a type relied upon by reasonable persons in the conduct of their serious affairs. See OAR 860-001-0450. Objections to the admissibility of evidence must be made at the time the evidence is offered. Objections are generally made on grounds that the evidence is unreliable, irrelevant, repetitious, or because its probative value is outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or undue delay. The order of presenting evidence is determined by the ALJ. The burden of presenting evidence to support an allegation rests with the person raising the allegation. Generally, once a hearing is completed, the ALJ will not allow the introduction of additional evidence without good cause.

Notice of Contested Case Rights and Procedures continued

Record: The hearing will be recorded, either by a court reporter or by audio digital recording, to preserve the testimony and other evidence presented. Parties may contact the court reporter about ordering a transcript or request, if available, a copy of the audio recording from the Commission for a fee set forth in OAR 860-001-0060. The hearing record will be made part of the evidentiary record that serves as the basis for the Commission's decision and, if necessary, the record on any judicial appeal.

Final Order and Appeal: After the hearing, the ALJ will prepare a draft order resolving all issues and present it to the Commission. The draft order is not open to party comment. The Commission will make the final decision in the case and may adopt, modify, or reject the ALJ's recommendation. If you disagree with the Commission's decision, you may request reconsideration of the final order within 60 days from the date of service of the order. See ORS 756.561 and OAR 860-001-0720. You may also file a petition for review with the Court of Appeals within 60 days from the date of service of the order. See ORS 756.610.
